Declaration: As an applicant, I understand that if my visa ceases to be in effect and I do not hold another visa to remain in Australia at that time, I will be an unlawful non-citizen under the Migration Act 1958. As such, I will be expected to depart from Australia and be subjected to removal under the Migration Act 1958

☐ I confirm that I understand this declaration.

Criminal Convictions: Did you ever have a criminal conviction? ☐ Yes ☐ No

If you have been convicted of any offence in any country (including any conviction which has now been removed from official records) this means that you have a criminal conviction. This includes when you have been found guilty of any offense, regardless of whether you were sentenced to a term of imprisonment or whether you had a spent conviction. If you fail to disclose a criminal conviction, you may be refused entry to Australia upon arrival and your visa may be cancelled.

If you had a criminal conviction, please contact GenVisa for an alternative visa.

Domestic Violence:

Have you ever been charged or convicted of a family or domestic violence offence of any similar related offence?

☐ Yes ☐ No

Have you ever been the subject of a domestic or family violence order, or any other order, of a tribunal or court or other similar authority, for the personal protection of another person?

☐ Yes ☐ No

I hereby confirm that the information provided is true.

If you are found to be in breach of any condition, your visa can be canceled at the border, and you will not be able to enter Australia.

AUSTRALIA (ETA)

No additional information is required. The ETA or E-Visitor visa is good for multiple entries into Australia and allows travelers to stay in the country for stays of up to 90 days on any one entry.

The ETA/E-Visitor visa is recorded electronically which eliminates the need for visa stamps or labels in your passport. If an Australian ETA is granted, an immigration officer will pull up your issued Australian ETA visa in their records, using the passport information you provided to GenVisa.

Criminal Record: If you have a criminal conviction and have been sentenced to a term of imprisonment of 12 months or more, you should not be applying for an ETA. You might be eligible to apply for other types of on-line visitor visas at <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/visitor-600>.

If you are found to be in breach of any condition, your visa can be canceled at the border and you will not be able to enter Australia.
